

'PRETENDING'

Why feignest thou thyself to be another?'

1 Kings 14 v 6

- 1, These words were spoken to a q_____ who was trying to disguise herself to look like a country-woman.
2. She was the wife of King Jeroboam who was a b___ k_____.
3. Their son was s_____ and they wanted the pr_____ whose name was Ahijah, to heal him. They thought that the prophet would not help them because they were bad people.
4. The prophet saw through the queen's d_____ and said to her 'why feignest thou thyself to be another?' meaning, 'why are you pretending to be someone you are not?'

5. There is an innocent kind of pre_____ as when children are dressing-up, pretending to be kings or pr_____ etc.

6. Or when we have to take med_____ that tastes nasty, we could pretend that it tastes n_____ in order to swallow it.

7. A bad kind of pretending is when we pretend to be the kind of p_____ we are not.

8. Be yourself is a good motto. We can copy other people's g_____ points, and we should all try to like the L_____ J_____ C_____ in the way that we live.
9. Everyone has their own gifts and t_____ to use.
10. The story about a jackdaw who pretended to be a p_____, but he fooled nobody.
11. People who pretend to be grander than others are called snobs; People who pretend to be more righteous than others when they are not are called hy_____

