

'Thank you for the birds that sing...'

BIRDS 10

1. Birds and humans are very different, but they have at least one thing in common—both can s_____.

2. Every species of bird has its own distinctive s_____.

3. What do we call the singing of the birds, when they sing in the early hours of the morning?
_____

4. The great poets have written about the birds. ....
John Milton, John Keats and William Wordsworth all wrote separate pieces called 'Ode to a n_____'

5. Mary Sorrell came to trust in Christ late in her life, after a severe illness which took away her s_____. She wrote a lovely poem called 'A s_____ singing in f_____'

6. Christians sing because of the h_____ that comes through knowing that their s_____ are f_____.

7. One Christian wrote...
*Awake, awake to love and work
The lark is in the sky;
And sing I must, for Christ is mine
His praise my lips employ.*

8. Write out one of your favourite hymns from the hymn book: