

TREASURES ON THE DEEP

12. DAVID LIVINGSTONE - A Storm of Trouble

1. Livingstone was not a man to dream d_____ without trying to make his dreams come true.
2. He wanted a s____ to do missionary work on Lake N_____ and so he wrote to a friend at home, to have one built and brought out, and said he would pay for it himself.
3. Soon, good news arrived, the little ship called 'Lady Nyassa' was ready and on its way on board the HMS Gordon.
4. The HMS Gordon was also bringing a far more i_____ lady - Dr Livingstone's wife!
5. There were other encouragements. Bishop McKenzie had arrived - a new m_____ with his own ship, Pioneer, who was to be a great help to Dr Livingstone.
6. But soon, there were discouragements. Slave traders began to kill and steal the natives along the Shiré R_____. Because of this, Livingstone himself was attacked by n_____.
7. Then there was an outbreak of f_____. Bishop McKenzie and Mrs Livingstone died. Livingstone himself was very ill, but recovered.
8. Heartbroken, he carried on. The Lady Nyassa was being c_____ the 40 miles between the river and the lake, when the devastating news arrived that the British G_____ had stopped supporting the work. Livingstone himself was ordered back to E_____.

Can you draw a picture of one of Livingstone's encouragements, and one of his discouragements

ENCOURAGEMENT

DISCOURAGEMENT