

'THE BEGINNING OF MONTHS'

1. These words were spoken by God to Moses and A_____ in the Land of E_____. They meant that after the long years that the Children of I_____ were sl_____ in Egypt, they were soon to be set free.
2. Though it seemed that the hard, monotonous weary work of slavery would never end, now the end was in sight.
3. Sometimes it seems that we are getting nowhere, but the B_____ teaches us that: 'in due time we shall r_____ if we f_____ not.'
4. It is exciting to b_____ a task, and it is exciting to f_____ a task, but often the middle part is hard, and the temptation is to g_____ up.
5. The middle of Winter is hard....J_____, F_____ and M_____; the journey to the Summer seems endless. It is the time to w_____ and pr_____.
6. William C_____, the first great missionary to In_____ at first seemed to be getting nowhere- there was prob_____ after prob_____. He said 'I am not a clever man, or a brave man, .. But I can plod, I can plod.' Faithful plodding, trusting in Christ achieves much.

'This month shall be unto you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year to you.'

Exodus 12 v 2
