

1. Today, when we say something is peculiar, it means that something is un_____ or o_____.
2. The older meaning of 'peculiar' is that something was very sp_____ or v_____.
3. We all have some things that we treasure. What do you treasure? _____

'A PECULIAR TREASURE'

'Ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me'

Exodus 19 v 5

4. Once upon a time they said that the contents of a boy's p_____ would probably include....a few marbles, a piece of str_____, a few sw_____, a penknife, perhaps a w_____ pistol, and a handkerchief that was once white!
5. Children and adults like to make c_____ of things that they treasure.
6. Our text says that God has His peculiar/ special treasures.
7. We might try to think what these could be....perhaps the st_____, the s_____, or the m_____....sparkling like jewels.
8. But the Bible reminds us here that those who trust in Christ as their Saviour are the peculiar-special tr_____ of God.

A Christian can sing....

*Jesus loves me this I know,
For the Bible tells me so*

*When He cometh
When He cometh
To make up His jewels;
All His jewels
Precious jewels,
His loved and His own.
Like the stars of the morning
His bright crown adorning
They shall shine
in their beauty
Bright gems for His crown.*

Can you draw some of your 'treasures'
on the back of the sheet?
