

'God created man in his own image...'

Genesis 1 v 27

1. Sometimes, when we are gr_____ up, people look at us and say 'You are just like your m_____' or 'you are just like your f_____':
2. In our verse today, the B_____ is teaching us that, in a way, we are like God.
3. Of course, we are nothing like God in many ways. There is no-one like God in his p_____; there is no-one like God in his w_____ ways and actions.
4. When God first made m__ and w_____, he made them pure and holy, just as He is p___ and h_____.
5. We, like God, can understand things, and reason things out in our m_____. Like God we have a will, and because we are made in God's image and likeness, we know in our hearts what is r_____ and what is wr_____.

6. John C_____ said, 'because man is made in the image and likeness of God, every part of him shows something of God's glory.'
7. Mankind is the most wonderful part of God's cr_____. He has made us so that we can know his love and share his fellowship.
8. All this means that ...
 - everyone's life is im_____
 - No-one's life is insignificant
 - We can only know true h_____ when we really know God
