

1. Jacob was now a very o__ man, and he wanted to give his blessing to his 2 grandchildren- J_____'s sons, Ephraim and Manasseh.
2. The 2 boys were brought to him; he took hold of their hands, and he put M_____ the elder at his right hand, and Ephraim the y_____ at his left. But then he crossed his hands over putting his right hand on Ephraim the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh.
3. Joseph knew that his father's e_____ was not good, so he pointed out his mistake.
4. Jacob said there was no mistake - the younger brother E_____ shall be greater than the older Manasseh.
5. It is hard when an older br_____ or s_____ is beaten by the younger, but it sometimes does happen that the younger is cleverer or str_____ or greater.
6. There is a danger that the o_____ brother or sister stops trying and just 'gives up' altogether.

'SECOND FIDDLE'

'He also shall be great: howbeit his younger brother shall be greater than he.' Gen 48 v 19

7. The great musician and c_____, Sir Michael Costa once noted that in a great orchestral piece, the little piccolo was not playing. He stopped the or_____ and cried out 'where is the piccolo?'

8. The piccolo player said 'In all the sound of the overture, I didn't think I was being h_____, so I stopped playing.' Everyone counts in the purpose of God.

9. We are reminded by this, that ... God is sovereign in all He does, and His goodness is not given to us because we deserve it, but because He is the God of grace.

On the back of the sheet, can you draw a picture of Jacob passing on the blessing to his grandsons?
