

1. Spider's w___ are fascinating constructions, and works of enormous sk___.
2. From every web, there runs what some call, 'the trap line'. This is a little thr___ which goes right to where the sp___ lives, in a little crevice, or under a l___.
3. The slightest touch of the web brings the spider down the tr___ line to see what he has c_____.

4. Some spiders, when they are young, spin l___ threads which are caught up by the wind, carrying the l_____ spiders many miles.
5. The Greeks have a legend called 'Arachne and Athene'. Arachne was a g___ who could s___ and weave and make beautiful tapestries.
6. She grew pr___ and said she could spin better than the goddess Athene, the goddess of spinners and weavers. In the fable Athene challenges her to a contest to see

- who can spin the b___.
7. The girl won, and grew even prouder, but Athene changed her into a s_____, to teach her not to boast.

THE SPIDER'S WEB

'whose trust is a spider's web...'
Job 8 v 14

8. There is a true story that tells of a g___ man called 'Felix of Nola'. He was being persecuted and fled to a c___ where a spider wove a w___ over the entrance.
9. Those searching for him thought he couldn't be there, or the web would be br_____.

GOD HAS ENDLESS WAYS
OF PROTECTING HIS PEOPLE