

1. Autumn has come and the leaves are beginning to be _____ to turn brown, crimson and gold, and beginning to f__ from the trees.

2. Soon the w_____ will be scattering the leaves far and wide. They will, as our text says, be 'd_____ too and fro..' up and down.

3. The autumn leaves have a m_____ for us. Jonathan Edwards said that Everything is under the control of God, even the f_____ of a leaf.

4. Another message from the leaves is this....

Be glad! One man thought of the autumn leaves scampering, running, j_____ and fl_____ as if they were having a really good time. A falling leaf might seem to be a s__ thing, but the leaves make the best of things, come what may.

5. The falling leaves rushing too and fro, say Cheer up! Don't always wear a fr_____ and think the worst.' This is the bravest thing to do. It isn't always those with the fewest tr_____ who smile the most.

AN AUTUMN LEAF

6. Another thing the falling leaves say to us is...

'Have a purpose'. Do not be driven too and fro with every wind that b_____.

7. Again, they remind us that God is working out his purposes in everything.

The leaves fall and make a bl_____ to keep the new seeds warm in the w_____. After that they make the soil in which the seeds grow.

8. God is working his purpose out y___ by y____. Everything is working together for good to those that love him....even the falling of a leaf.

'...a leaf driven too and fro...'

John 13 v 25