

O'GRADY SAID

O'GRADY
CASTLE

1. One of the g____ children often play with their friends is called 'O'Grady says'. Sometimes the same game is called 'S____ says'.
2. O'Grady was an army officer, and the game was used in the a____ to teach s____ to listen carefully and do as they were told.
3. All around us in life are v____, telling us to do this or that.
4. Sometimes these voices tell us to do the r____ thing, but sometimes they try to persuade us to do the wr____ thing.

5. Even from our own h____ there are voices telling us to do th__ or th__; sometimes r____ and sometimes wr____.
6. A____ and E____ knew this. For them the voice of God spoke, and the voice of Satan spoke. They listened to the voice of S____ with disastrous consequences.
7. Those who w__ the game of 'O'Grady says', tells us that they keep their e____ on the one who gives the commands, and l____ with both ears.
8. In life, we should keep our eye on the Lord Jesus, by reading the B____, and listen carefully, and d__ what he says.

'Whatsoever he saith unto you, Do it!'
