

TAKEN BY SURPRISE

1. In this chapter of the Bible, 600 men of the Tribe of D___ captured a city called Laish.
2. Really they had no right to attack this city as it was outside the Land of C_____.
3. We are told that the people of the city of Laish were a very careless people and did not guard their c___ very well. In some ways they deserved to be att_____.
4. We can use this story to teach us that we should guard our m_____ and hearts, and not let evil deceive us and get in.
5. We need to guard every part of our mind and heart.

Be careful little eyes what you s___...

Be careful little e___ what you h___...

Be careful little h___ what you do...

Be careful little l___ what you say

Be careful little f___ where you w_____.

Be careful little heart who you l___.

'They dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure'. Judges 18 v 7

6. It is often where we forget to place a g_____ that the e_____ gets in. We may be too honourable to tell a lie; we may be too honest to do anything underhand, but the enemy may come in through pride.
7. The story of the Defeat of Montcalm by General Wolf at Quebec. The climbing of the Heights of Abraham.

General Montcalm, mortally wounded on the Plains of Abraham, is taken to Quebec.

8. Our best defences are : the high wall of pr_____, a good conscience, a firm w_____, the sword of the sp_____ (which is the W___ of G___), and the shield of f_____.
9. Also we need to be on the watch. ..'w_____ and pr___ that ye enter not into temp_____.' Matt 26 v 41
