

Using your eyes

1. When Moses led the P_____ of I_____ through the wilderness to the P_____ Land, he took with him his father-in-law Hobab, who had lived all his life in the wilderness.
2. Moses said that Hobab's e_____ would be very useful to everyone else. He would see the g_____ places in which to camp, and avoid the b_____ places. His experience would be invaluable.
3. We can use our eyes to h_____ others. A girl once went with a blind lady to an art-gallery, and d_____ the paintings so well, that the lady said it was as good as actually s_____ing them.
4. Sometimes children can help their mothers thread needles - as people get o_____, they cannot see so well.
5. Older people however, have the 'eye of ex_____'. We can learn many lessons along life's way if we are wise enough to l_____ to the voice of experience.
6. Some have spent many years reading the B_____. They have many experiences and insights to tell us.

'Thou mayest be to us
instead of eyes'

Numbers 10 v 31

7. Younger people can have vision of 'what might be'. The Prophets were a bit like this - they had vision of what God would do in the f_____.
8. We will have the b_____ eyesight if we always keep our Saviour in view.