

ST PIRAN & THE CORNISH FLAG

1. The Cornish flag is bl___ with a wh___ cross on it.
2. It is also called the flag of St Piran.
St P___ lived in the 6th Century, and probably came to C_____ from Ire_____.
3. St Piran was one of about 140 people who brought the G_____ to Cornwall in those far off days.
4. The name 'Saint' here, simply means miss_____ or godly m___ and wo_____.
5. St Piran is also called the patron saint of tanners. The metal, t___ can be found in the bl___ hearthstone which is found all over Cornwall.

7. A better answer is that it represents the cr___, as bringing light out of d_____.
8. The Cross of Christ is 'the way back to God from the dark paths of sin'.

It represents ...

- the light of tr___, and
- the light of h___, and
- the joyful light of knowing our sins for_____.

6. He has this title because he is said to have rediscovered the art of tin-smelting in Cornwall, which had been l___ for many years.
7. Everything works well when Christian-ity is str___. Some say the flag is black and white because of the pattern of the white tin on the black stones.
